FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF WILLIAM WISHAW AND CAROLINE MAY

William Wishaw was born in about 1769. A search for Wishaw in the Worcester area provides no groups of Wishaws, Wishalls or Wishers. The town of Severn Stoke, a few miles south of Worcester city has several Wilshire families. The name is spelled Wilshire, Wiltshire and Wiltcher. Two possibilities for our William are born in the right time period - William, son of William and Elizabeth, christened in 1765, and William, son of Charles and Rebecca, born in 1774. This last William married Elizabeth in about 1796, and so is the most likely candidate, since our William is a widower at the time of his marriage to Caroline May in 1817.

William was christened 10 April 1774 in Severn Stoke, Worcestershire, the son of Charles Wilshire and Rebecca Mason. He married Elizabeth in about 1796 in Severn Stoke, and had four children.

William and Elizabeth had the following children:

1. Edward, christened 10 September 1797 in Severn Stoke.
2. Henry, christened 9 February 1801 in Severn Stoke; married Mary Webb 15 August 1831 in Severn Stoke.
3. Catherina, christened 18 May 1803 in Severn Stoke.
4. Michael, christened 6 February 1806 in Severn Stoke.

William married Caroline May 8 September 1817 in Claines, Worcester, England. Caroline was christened 14 October 1798 in St. John Bedwardine, Worcester city, the daughter of Susannah May. Claines is a suburb of the city of Worcester. William was about 48 years old and a widower at the time of his marriage to Caroline.

The parish register for Claines showed:

8 September 1817, William Wisher of this parish, widower and Caroline May of this parish, spinster, were married by banns.

Witnesses: William Cullis, Sarah Fiddles

The parish register for St. Martins, Worcester, Worcestershire shows that William's occupation was a Quack Doctor. This was a homeopathic doctor who used herbs to treat patients. William and Caroline lived in the Lowesmere area at the time of their son's christening in 1818.

William and Caroline had the following children:

1. William, christened 25 January 1818 in St. Martin, Worcester, Worcester; married 1) Mary Ann Chinn 30 August 1841; had children: William (1842), Emma (1844), Joseph (1845), Frederick (1847), William (1849), Albert (1851) and Frederick Henry (1852), all in St. Phillips, Birmingham; married 2) Jane; had child: Albert (about 1859) in Sheffield, York. William, Jane and Albert were found in the 1881 census in Sheffield, York, England. William's occupation was listed as comb maker and shopkeeper. William died December 1884 in Sheffield.

*2. James Frederick, born 5 December 1819 in Worcester, Worcester, England; married Maryann Merrick 3 March 1840 in Birmingham, Warwickshire, England; died 30 October 1847 in Birmingham.

William died 25 August 1821, at the age of 52, in the parish of Alcester, Warwickshire. Alcester was a small market town about nine miles west of Stratford-on-Avon.

*Burial record for William Wishaw in Alcester:
William Wishaw, abode - Alcester, buried 25 August 1821, age 52.*

Caroline married a second time. The parish register for Claines showed:

2 October 1824, John Hunt, widower of this parish and Caroline Wishaw, widow of this parish were married by banns.

Caroline and John had the following children:

1. Francis, christened 25 September 1825 in St. Martin, Worcester, Worcestershire, of New Street; buried 9 June 1828 in St. Martin, Worcester.

2. Caroline, christened 9 January 1828 in St. Martin, Worcester.

3. Francis, christened 11 September 1829 in St. Martin, Worcester.

4. Henry, christened 29 January 1832 in St. Martin, Worcester.

5. James, born about 1834 of Worcester.

6. Jane, christened 23 July 1836 in St. Martin, Worcester.

7. George, christened 22 June 1839 in St. Martin, Worcester.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF WILLIAM AND JANE WILSHIRE

William Wilshire was christened September 1597 in Severn Stoke, the son of William Wilshire and Johanne Fowler. He married Jane.

William was mentioned in the will of Elianor Lythorne of Severn Stoke in 1629, along with his father William, his mother, and Thomas Wilshire: "Item I give to Thomas Wilshire xijd. Item I give unto the wife of William Wilsher the elder xijd. I give to William Willsher the taylor xijd. Item I give to Willyam Wilsher the younger fisher xijd." (Will of Eleinor Lythorne of Severn Stoke, 30 Sept 1629; Prerogative Court of Canterbury) William's occupation was given as fisher (a provider of fish).

Will of Elianor Lythorne of Severn Stoke, 1629, mentioning William Wilshire the younger

Jane Wilshire may have been mentioned in the will of Katherine Mowld of Severn Stoke in 1654: “And five shillings to Goody Wilshire the alewoman.” (Will of Katherine Mowld of Severn Stoke, 1654) An alewoman was a woman who kept an alehouse or tavern.

A 500-year-old tavern in Severn Stoke

The same will mentioned William Wilshire, but referred to William Wilshire the younger. Since William's father had died in 1639, William may have been the elder, and the mention referred to his young son William: “Item I give to Thomas Tryton William White Goodman Darling and William Wilshire the younger whom I doe appoint to carry mee to churche if they please one shilling a peece.” (Will of Katherine Mowld of Severn Stoke, 1654)

William died and was buried 3 April 1664 in Severn Stoke.

FAMILY GROUP RECORD OF WILLIAM WILSHIRE AND JOHANNE FOWLER

William Wilshire was born in about 1554 of Severn Stoke, the son of William Wilshire and Johanna Ayles. He married Johanne Fowler in January 1579 in Severn Stoke.

Johanne was born in about 1555, most likely the daughter of Richard Fowler.

A payment was recorded in 1608 in the parish register for "Willm Wilchar for house and land" in Severn Stoke. The next entry, also in 1608, is for "Nicho. Fowler and Will Thomas for Burdens house". Possibly the Wishires and the Fowlers were neighbors.

William and his wife were mentioned in the will of Elianor Lythorne of Severn Stoke in 1629, along with his son William, his wife, and Thomas Wilshire: "Item I give to Thomas Wilshire xijd. Item I give unto the wife of William Wilsher the elder xijd. I give to William Willsher the taylor xijd. Item I give to Willyam Wilsher the younger fisher xijd. " (Will of Eleinor Lythorne of Severn Stoke, 30 Sept 1629; Prerogative Court of Canterbury) William's occupation was given as a tailor. Thomas is not identified. Possibly he was William's son or brother.

*Will of Elianor Lythorne of Severn Stoke, 1629, mentioning
William Wilshire the elder and his wife, along with their son William.*

William died and was buried 23 May 1639 in Severn Stoke.

William and Johanne had the following children:

1. Anna, christened November 1580 in Severn Stoke.
2. Elizabeth, christened in 1585 in Severn Stoke; buried 1 August 1600 in Severn Stoke.
